- Danyell out sick; only +$150 since last meeting. $5711 in bank account. Approx $2k available now, outside of already budgeted items. Motioned: Rachel W, 2nd Amanda D

Old Business

- ES News: IAR testing finished. Wax Museum last week; Shark Tank this Thursday. Conferences next Thursday, Book Fair next week, along with Grandparents Night. Spring Break coming up.
- MS News: IAR testing starting later this week into next week. Book Fair going on now. Spelling Bee next week. Conferences and Spring Break starts Thursday. Volleyball net post areas are marked.
- Dine and Donate Fundraisers: South Moon tomorrow; all day! Dine in or take out. Hinckley Cafe is passing. Press Box on March 18 430-7 at ES during Grandparents Night. Dairy Joy April 29-staff server signup will be sent out in April
- Candle/Polish Pottery Fundraiser: Would need to purchase 50 up front for $20. Sell for $30. Discussion. No motions to purchase were made. Keep this idea for a later date.
- MS Concessions: Nothing new. Will be at Nitroball on Friday and Danyell will run the Spelling Bee on the 19th.
- Wet Felting: revised proposal distributed. New image is agriculture themed. Motion to start the project; no limit to timeline (depends on school/Natasha availability); does not include framing; does not include heart ornaments; up to $1400. Motioned Jazmin S, 2nd Ally Barry. All ayes. No nay.
- Art in Classroom: Danyell not present; will table for next month.
- Gaga Ball Pit: 1st purchase of sandbags didn't work; more sandbags purchased. Colored balls delivered this week-hoping the classroom ball plan works
- Grandparents Night: 5-630: book fair open. Press Box 430-7. 3 crafts available.
- Shark Tank refreshments: Michelle taking care of: cookies, brownies, drinks.
- Board elections: recap: VP and Treasurer position open for next year. Rachel will run for VP again. Danyell not present to state her intentions. Bylaws say it is recommended that after 2 terms to take a term off; but we would need to find a replacement: replacement candidates should let PTO board member know of their interest. Elections in May
- ES Book Fair: next week. Students get free book up to $7
- MS Book Fair: this week. Students get $9 book for free (MS Books are more expensive in general; Andersons books are generally more expensive than previous Scholastic fairs)
- MS Breakfast with Books: approximately 20 parent groups came. Had 15 boxes of donuts, 3 bags cuties: both too many. Will make notes for next year. Carrie gave receipts to Michelle to pass to Danyell
- Spring Hospitality Dinners: taco sign ups are posted. Both are doing dinner at 4pm

New Business

- Medieval Times: PTO voted on giving $500 for 5th grade field trip back in Fall 2023. However, 5th grade had their own fundraiser and raised all funds and don't need PTOs funds. April 19 Medieval Times Date.
- Daddy Daughter Dance: April 20: theme is Hippie tie-dye. Rachel W will work on flyer. $5/couple. Extra kid, extra cost. Info will be posted on flyer-out before Spring Break. Jazmin will let PTO know what she needs.
- Paramount Acting Class for ES: K-5. Michelle working on Saturdays in April.
- Hygiene Kit: refresher kit items for puberty talk in Spring. Nurses are also requesting PTO provide kits every year during puberty talk. Motion proposed to provide refresher kits this year up to $300; and need to propose the purchase of kits each separate year: Motioned Mandy K, 2nd Ally B. All Aye, no Nay.
- Board financial approvals: more sandbags; shirt purchase for Wax Museum; free books for book fair

Open Discussion

- Mrs Slater will be working on a Wax Museum/costume closet for future use.
- 5th grade really liked calming strips they used during IAR testing. Asked for strips for all 5th graders.. $20 for 5th grade strips. Motioned Ally B, 2nd Mandy K. 5th grade will send a link to PTO email.
- May 15 Pie Night
- May 23: MS Ice Cream/Field Day. May 24: 8th Grade Graduation, 9am
- Adjourned: 7:57PM Motioned: Jazmin, 2nd Mandy K
